DEFENSE COMMISSARY AGENCY
1300 Eisenhower Avenue, Fort Lee, Virginia 23801-1800

Jerry G. Hall
Director, Supply Chain Directorate

Jerry Hall serves as the Defense Commissary Agency's (DeCA) Director, Supply Chain, headquartered at Fort Lee, Virginia. His appointment became effective in November 2026.

As Director, Supply Chain, Mr. Hall leads enterprise-level global logistics and supply chain operations supporting 235 commissaries in 13 countries. He oversees eight central distribution centers in the Pacific and Europe and a central meat processing plant in Germany. These operations support approximately $5 billion in annual sales and employ more than 700 personnel. Mr. Hall serves as the principal advisor to DeCA senior leadership on supply chain performance and accountability.

Mr. Hall previously served as Chief, Supply Chain Operations, from December 2024 through April 2026, when he began serving as the Acting Director, Supply Chain. In that role, he advised the Director, Supply Chain, on planning, integrating, and coordinating headquarters-level supply chain execution. His responsibilities included central distribution center management, central meat processing plant operations, U.S. distribution, transportation, property accountability, and logistics information systems.

Before that assignment, Mr. Hall served as Chief, Overseas Distribution Division. He directed operations and business processes for eight overseas central distribution centers, the European central meat processing plant, two distribution support offices, and transportation operations supporting 57 commissaries in 13 countries. He led 735 dedicated employees.

Mr. Hall brings more than 37 years of combined military and civilian service. He began his government career in 1988 as an enlisted Soldier in the U.S. Army. His awards include DeCA's Meritorious Service Award and numerous Department of War and military service awards.
